3. Jamie Jackson / Rocky Mountain Construction
   Jamie Jackson addresses the Board and explains request, would like Abutters Rights reinstated on three lots in the Sherwood Forest Estates. Commissioner Boyd asks what the actual access would be, will there be access from back and front of property? Jackson responds was not designed to have access from the back. Mike Zarosinski explains what Abutters Rights are and why limitations were made, explains that Public Works is not in favor of having more access points on to Homedale. Commissioner DeGroot does not see that this restriction is conducive for residential homes, he thinks that the County should reinstate Abutters Rights to those particular lots. Commissioner DeGroot asks when construction start? Jackson responds right away, as soon as site plans get through. Commissioner Boyd is concerned about people backing out of their driveway onto Homedale. Commissioner Boyd would like to reinstate the Abutters rights back to those lots. Commissioner Morris agrees. Commissioner DeGroot asks when the formal process would entail? Zarosinski responds unsure, may need a Plat change, will have to look into that. Zarosinski speaks about County Code regarding Access Management and the Urban Area Transportation documents, explains restrictions and guidelines. Zarosinski suggests a compromise of 2 properties having a shared driveway. Further discussion about cost associated with Zarosinski’s recommendation and options that would be less expensive. Commissioner DeGroot motions to reinstate the Abutters Rights to the 3 lots in question having two accesses at a minimum of 100 feet apart and waive the frontage improvement requirement, Commissioner Morris seconds. Unanimous vote. Approved.
