

Initiative Petition from League of Women Voters of Klamath County

BALLOT TITLE

Caption:

Makes Klamath County commissioner positions nonpartisan beginning in 2013.

Question:

Shall county commissioner positions become nonpartisan beginning 2013?

Statement:

In Klamath County, all elected county officials are nonpartisan except for the county commissioners. Candidates for county commissioner are currently nominated from political parties. State law allows the voters of a county to change the mode of selection of an elected county official. This initiative measure would make the county commissioner positions nonpartisan beginning 2013.

Result of YES vote

If this initiative measure passes, county commissioner positions will become nonpartisan in 2013.

Result of NO vote

If this initiative measure fails, candidates for county commissioner will continue to be nominated from political parties.
