

Extension Service District Significant Changes 2017-2018

The significant changes in the fiscal year 2017-18 budget are primarily revenue related.

The District now has a good estimate of the amount of property tax that will be generated on an annual basis.

The District will also have a beginning working capital or fund balance on which to operate instead of receiving a transfer from Klamath County.