Final Grant Report

Klamath County Tourism Grant

Project Name: 2016 Art of Survival Century

Submitted by Malin Historical Society (MHS) assisted by these partnering organizations: Malin Community Service Club, City of Tulelake, Malin Broadway Theatre (Basin Youth for Christ)

Introduction/Highlights

The 2016 Art of Survival Century was an unqualified success in both ridership and success in bringing a great deal of attention and tourists to the Klamath Basin. Some of the highlights are:

- This year's event drew 225 riders which is triple the number of riders from the Inaugural year of the ride in 2014. Last year's event drew 194 riders which translate into a 14% increase of riders over 2015.
- With the help of the Klamath County Tourism Grant we were able to target large cycling market areas such as Portland and Eugene to the north and Sacramento and Chico in the south.
- We estimate an economic impact of $49,300 which is up from the estimated $40,000 impact from last year's ride.
- We heard many small community Motels, Bed and Breakfast, and larger sites such as Holiday Inn Express, Cimarron Inn and Running Y Ranch benefited from stays and exposure the event brings the area.
- We continued to have a very high rate of participation in the Riders Survey, 74 percent, with 167 responding out of 225 riders.

- The biggest surprise was the great turn out from across the entire basin of small children at the Bicycle Safety Rodeo which attracted 42 children and dozens of other children watched. (Some simply may not have had bikes or helmets to participate).
- One sad note: After they finished the Bike Rodeo an 8 year old boy showed up with his dad. His eyes filled with tears and he started crying when he found out it was already over. Hard to watch, but we told him when he is 9 we think he will have a good chance to win. We urged him to come back next year. Dad had to work all day and couldn't get him to the safety program.
- Strong participation in the Rider's Survey, along with the large volume of comments, show great engagement with the riders to help us improve the ride. It was great to see they wanted to help us develop quality data and help us quantify and justify the grant funding we received this year from Klamath County.
- The sponsorship stayed strong but saw a decrease to $5,600 donated in 2016.
- The number of organizations partnering expanded which shows an increase in community awareness and support for these small communities surrounding the large community of Klamath Falls.
- The ride continued to grow into a community/Lower Klamath Basin/regional asset with the profits aimed at benefiting much of the Lower Klamath Basin area.

Requirement 3- Update the budget with actual revenues and expenses for both the project and marketing budgets.

SEE ATTACHMENT 1 BUDGETS

Requirement 4- Where did you spend your marketing dollars?

The focus of our out of county marketing dollars focused on the Sacramento, Chico and Redding regional markets in California and the Eugene, Portland and Rogue Valley markets in Oregon. We used social media, targeted cycling magazines, radio and television spots along with printed materials such as posters, rack cards, and tri-fold brochures. We worked with bike shops, bike clubs, Welcome Centers, and Chambers of Commerce.

Requirement 5- What part of your marketing efforts were most successful and least successful?

Most successful efforts included Social Media with Or-Bike, Race Planner for online entry and sales with their robust data gathering capability, attendance at other cycling events to pass out materials, and partnering with other tourism organizations such as Discover Klamath to leverage our funding and partner in extending our reach and dollars. Based on our Rider Survey data, and information supplied by Race Planner, we were able to see where our efforts were the strongest. We had 27 riders from Portland, OR, 23 riders from Redding CA, 21 riders from the Rogue Valley in Oregon, 14 riders from Sacramento, CA, 10 riders from Eugene, OR, and a big surprise, 8 riders from the State of Washington.

Disappointments include Sacramento and Chico, California where we missed the main target of our planning due to grant funds becoming available after the seasonal bike parties and not being able to attend those events. We hope to be able to attend those events this fall to see if that will bring us a better return on marketing dollars than we saw when forced to rely on traditional methods such as fliers at bike shops and attendance at large events. The Chico cycling event is huge and we attended the event and handed out rack cards, brochures, and tri-fold fliers. We had little to no participation from the efforts at this event which draws thousands of riders each year. We may have just blended in too much, hard to stand out in that crowd unless you can make a big splash which we obviously did not.

Requirement 6- How many people from out of county attended?

Out of 225 riders attending the event, 152 were from outside the county. We thought that was a good number ratio except that we felt we did not do enough to draw local riders and clubs to our event for the basin. We had two 80 year olds, and this year, which excited us, we had our first eight 20 year olds which bodes well for the future.

Requirement 7– How did you determine how many people from out of county attended? Explain why this is an accurate way to measure/track this.

We have two methods to collect information from our riders. First, we use a company called Race Planner who collects information during the registration process. You cannot pay without letting us know where you come from. The second time we collect home and state information is during our outstanding Riders Survey which is conducted by our partners at Cycle Siskiyou who created this event and handed this great asset over to the Klamath Basin communities of Oregon and California. The riders take the survey before they leave the event, either when they come in or after eating and rehydrating. We collect great information during registration but what is unique to our ride is the Riders Survey, which tells us the day of the event where folks plan to stay, how long, and what other communities, and tourism features they plan to attend while collecting the number of days they will stay in our county.

Requirement 8– How many extra days did you visitors stay in the area?

Using the number of riders coming from out of the county which (from registrations) was 152 of the 225 riders and the percentages of extra day stays from last year we determined riders of this event stayed 115 extra days. We had 225 total riders register for the event. This number does not include friends or relatives who may have come along but did not register and ride. With 152 out of county riders and 115 extra day stays we calculate 267 days total days of out of county visitor days due to the event.

Requirement 9– How did you determine how many extra days your visitors stayed? Explain why this is an accurate measurement of the extra days.

Combining registration information and Rider Survey we have been able to capture data on how long and where riders stayed in the county. The advantage of capturing the data right after the riders finish is that they know what they are doing next and probably have their reservations already. Capturing the data this close to their stay is a more accurate assessment than data gathered months in advance.

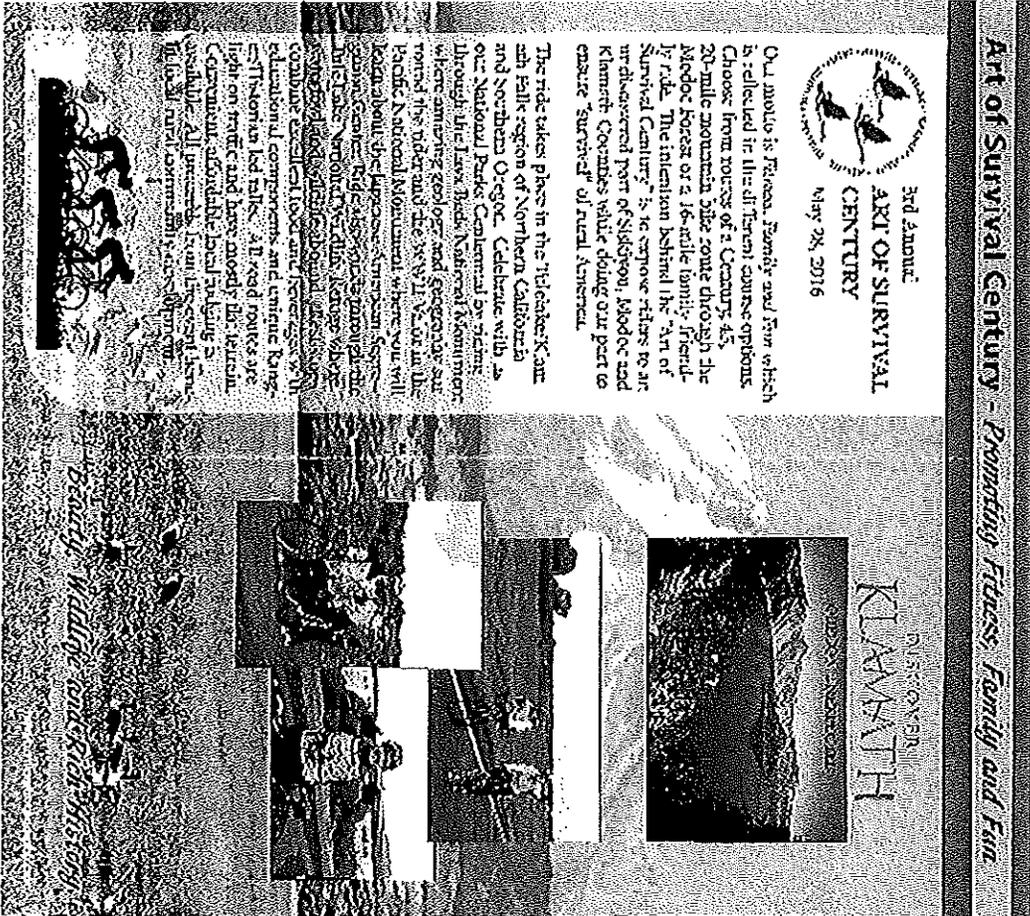

The bad news this year, due to a glitch in our survey set up we were unable to capture where folks stayed and how long at this year's event. We captured the data the last 2 years but were unable to this year due to the glitch. We feel we have a very defensible number using the data we collect. For this year, in order to have some quantifiable numbers to measure the economic impact we decided to use the percentages from last year's event combined with new data on how many came from out of the county to calculate an estimate of the number of extra days and economic impact the event had this year. Under the circumstances this is the best we can do. We understand this data has limitations and chances for error are increased. The organization conducting the survey recognized the glitch the day of the event and apologized but continued to gather the other data with this portion being the only part missing.

Economic Impact of the 2016 Art of Survival Century

According to Dean Runyan economic studies, a well respected source of these types of data, for cycling tourism the expenditures for a day ride is $98 as a minimum with no use of lodging. When tied to an event spending jumps to an average of $158 a day for events. These are conservative numbers to be on the safe side. With 225 riders and 73 here for only a day trip we calculated an economic impact of $7,154.00 for this group. Using Dean Runyan spending ($158 a day) numbers for events times the $158 per day rate they averaged and our estimate of 115 extra days we calculate $18,170 in spending on additional days. We then need to add on the first day of the event which we took out to get extra days and now add on 152 times the $158 which comes to $24,016 in spending. Combining the day stays ($7,154), the first days for those who stayed extra days ($24,016) and the extra day spending ($18,170) we come to an estimated economic impact of the event was $49,340.

Most successful efforts included Social Media with Or-Bike, Race Planner for online entry and sales with their robust data gathering capability, attendance at other cycling events to pass out materials, and partnering with other tourism organizations such as Discover Klamath to leverage our funding and partner in extending our reach and dollars. Based on our Rider Survey data, and information supplied by Race Planner, we were able to see where our efforts were the strongest. We had 27 riders from Portland, OR , 23 riders from Redding CA, 21 riders from the Rogue Valley in Oregon, 14 riders from Sacramento, CA, 10 riders from Eugene, OR, and a big surprise, 8 riders from the State of Washington.

Disappointments include Sacramento and Chico, California where we missed the main target of our planning due to grant funds becoming available after the seasonal bike parties and not being able to attend those events. We hope to be able to attend those events this fall to see if that will bring us a better return on marketing dollars than we saw when forced to rely on traditional methods such as fliers at bike shops and attendance at large events. The Chico cycling event is huge and we attended the event and handed out rack cards, brochures, and tri-fold fliers. We had little to no participation from the efforts at this event which draws thousands of riders each year. We may have just blended in too much, hard to stand out in that crowd unless you can make a big splash which we obviously did not.

Requirement 6- How many people from out of county attended?

Out of 225 riders attending the event, 152 were from outside the county. We thought that was a good number ratio except that we felt we did not do enough to draw local riders and clubs to our event for the basin. We had two 80 year olds, and this year, which excited us, we had our first eight 20 year olds which bodes well for the future.

Requirement 7– How did you determine how many people from out of county attended? Explain why this is an accurate way to measure/track this.

We have two methods to collect information from our riders. First, we use a company called Race Planner who collects information during the registration process. You cannot pay without letting us know where you come from. The second time we collect home and state information is during our outstanding Riders Survey which is conducted by our partners at Cycle Siskiyou who created this event and handed this great asset over to the Klamath Basin communities of Oregon and California. The riders take the survey before they leave the event, either when they come in or after eating and rehydrating. We collect great information during registration but what is unique to our ride is the Riders Survey, which tells us the day of the event where folks plan to stay, how long, and what other communities, and tourism features they plan to attend while collecting the number of days they will stay in our county.

Requirement 8– How many extra days did you visitors stay in the area?

Using the number of riders coming from out of the county which (from registrations) was 152 of the 225 riders and the percentages of extra day stays from last year we determined riders of this event stayed 115 extra days. We had 225 total riders register for the event. This number does not include friends or relatives who may have come along but did not register and ride. With 152 out of county riders and 115 extra day stays we calculate 267 days total days of out of county visitor days due to the event.

Requirement 9– How did you determine how many extra days your visitors stayed? Explain why this is an accurate measurement of the extra days.

Combining registration information and Rider Survey we have been able to capture data on how long and where riders stayed in the county. The advantage of capturing the data right after the riders finish is that they know what they are doing next and probably have their reservations already. Capturing the data this close to their stay is a more accurate assessment than data gathered months in advance.

The bad news this year, due to in a glitch in our survey set up we were unable to capture where folks stayed and how long at this year's event. We captured the data the last 2 years but were unable to this year due to the glitch. We feel we have a very defendable number using the data we collect. For this year, in order to have some quantifiable numbers to measure the economic impact we decided to use the percentages from last year's event combined with new data on how many came from out of the county to calculate an estimate of the number of extra days and economic impact the event had this year. Under the circumstances this is the best we can do. We understand this data has limitations and chances for error are increased. The organization conducting the survey recognized the glitch the day of the event and apologized but continued to gather the other data with this portion being the only part missing.

Economic Impact of the 2016 Art of Survival Century

According to Dean Runyan economic studies, a well respected source of these types of data, for cycling tourism the expenditures for a day ride is $98 as a minimum with no use of lodging. When tied to an event spending jumps to an average of $158 a day for events. These are conservative numbers to be on the safe side. With 225 riders and 73 here for only a day trip we calculated an economic impact of $7,154.00 for this group. Using Dean Runyan spending ($158 a day) numbers for events times the $158 per day rate they averaged and our estimate of 115 extra days we calculate $18,170 in spending on additional days. We then need to add on the first day of the event which we took out to get extra days and now add on 152 times the $158 which comes to $24,016 in spending. Combining the day stays ($7,154), the first days for those who stayed extra days ($24,016) and the extra day spending ($18,170) we come to an estimated economic impact of the event was $49,340.

program and pre-ride rides to get ready for the 16-mile family-friendly ride "Nothing?"

In 2015, Wells, who lives in Klamath Falls, said her legs and lungs were fine after the ride, but admits, "My butt got sore."

She planned to do more preparation for this year's ride but admitted, "I've got my bike and I'm looking at it," but hasn't gotten it out the door.

Wells said she participated in last year's ride to be with friends and enjoy the scenery. "For 30 years I cycled and hiked and kayaked with a group of friends" during the years she and husband Chuck, lived near Chiloquin. "Some of them are going to do the ride so I go along. If I don't finish, I don't finish. Well see."

LOCAL REGISTRATIONS

Co-coordinators Linda Woodley and Bev Farrio said they were glad to see Wells' registration. Although the number of out-of-the-area bicyclists has equaled Mount Shasta residents participate in the 2015 Art of Survival Century bicycle ride. This year's ride kicks off Friday, May 27 with a reception at the Discover Klamath office in Klamath Falls.

Last year's numbers, registrations from Klamath Basin riders have been slow. Last year's ride drew 195 participants and Woodley and Farrio hopes to increase those numbers this year. As in past years, activities will begin with a Friday, May 27, 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. reception at the Discover Klamath office, 205 Riverside Drive in Klamath Falls. People can register while those who have pre-registered can pick-up their packets and other materials. More SURVIVAL | C2

READY TO RIDE

Another 82-year-old, Ed Blaydon of Klamath Falls, also recently signed up for the Art of Survival bicycle ride.

Blaydon is an experienced bicyclist who has participated in week-long Cycle Oregon and other long distance rides. He and his cycling friend, John Staples, who is in his 70s, are long-time riding friends and plan to ride together in the 45-mile event. "I haven't been in this ride and it sounded fun, and flat," he said of why he entered.

"Not near as much as I'd like to," Blaydon said of early season rides, although he and Staples have cycled to Merrill and back. Blaydon, who started riding at age 40, said he now tries to pedal 2,500 to 3,000 miles, noting, "I used to get in more than that." Why does he bicycle? "I like to ride because I like to eat."

tury that will begin at 7:30 a.m. It includes a free lunch at the Main Community Park hosted by the Main Historical Society, one of the event's sponsors. The 45-mile ride will begin at 8:30 a.m. and feature rest stops with ranger interpreters at the Tulé Lake Unit of the World War II Valor in the Pacific National Monument and Captain Jack's Stronghold at the Lava Beds. The family-friendly 16-mile ride will begin at 10 a.m. and is an out-and-back to the Klamath Basin National Wildlife Refuges headquarters outside Tulelake.

EYE ON THE WEATHER

So far, the majority of the 115 registrants have signed up for the 45-mile ride, but Woodley believes registrations for all the distances will increase, especially if weather forecasts are favorable. Last year's event drew 195 bicyclists, with many registering in the days before the ride, at the pre-ride party. This year the pre-ride party will be from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. May 27 at the Discover Klamath office, 205 Riverside Drive, in Klamath Falls, and the morning of the event at the fairgrounds.

"It's just a wonderful way to showcase our resources," Woodley said, noting one of the goals of the event is "to expose riders to an undiscovered part of Siskiyou, Modoc and Klamath counties while doing our part to ensure survival of rural America." Other goals include promoting physical fitness being outdoors.

NEW THIS YEAR

New this year, according to Woodley and Fairdo, is a free California Highway Patrol sponsored bicycle rodeo for youth age 5 to 12. Youth will receive instructions on safe bicycle riding techniques during the rodeo, which is set for 2 p.m. at the fairgrounds. Woodley said the late start was planned to accommodate youth who might be in the 16-mile event.

"We're offering rides for all levels and abilities of bicyclists," Woodley said, noting rest stops along the four routes will offer food and beverages.

For 45-milers, the Lava Beds stop will be at Captain Jack's Stronghold, a key site in the 1872-73 Modoc War, while the Tulé Lake Unit stop is at the prison of the Tule Lake Detention-Segregation Center. More than 18,000 Japanese-Americans were incarcerated at Tule Lake during World War II. Riders in the 45-mile will have the option of taking an out-and-back detour to the Lava Beds visitor center.

NATURE HERITAGE

"More than a bicycle ride, the Art of Survival Century is a story of heritage, encouraging participants to take time to enjoy the natural resources, rich history and remarkable beauty of the area," Woodley and Ott said. "In a land of stunning volcanic formations, rolling farmlands and spectacular high desert, there are many outdoor adventures awaiting exploration."

Information and registration is available at www.survival-century.com or by contacting Woodley at 541-723-3180. Fees are $75 for Century, $50 for the 45-mile, $24 for the mountain bike and $25 for the 16-mile. Registration fees will increase by $5 after May 20. The fees include rest stop food and beverages, a catered post-ride meal at the fairgrounds, entertainment and prizes. The cost for non-rider tickets at the post-ride meal is $10. T-shirts and jerseys with the Art of Survival logo and National Park Centennial symbol can be ordered online.

rest stops along the four routes will offer food and beverages. To help participants learn more about the region, several of the rest stops will offer educational components, including programs by Tule Lake Unit and Lava Beds rangers.

LAVA BEDS START

The mountain bike ride will begin and end at the Lava Beds visitor center. Starting time for the ride, which will go through portions of the park and neighboring Medicine Lake Highland, is 9 a.m. The three other rides will begin and end at the Tulelake Fairgrounds. Century riders will leave at 7:30 a.m., 45-mile riders at 8:30 a.m. and 16-mile riders at 10 a.m. Century riders will go through portions of three counties in two states, including such rural areas as Tule Lake, Newell, Merrill, Henley, Olene and Malin.

During a recent organizational meeting, Woodley and others said they hope the rides can attract upward of 500 participants — "It's possible," she said, noting early registrations are all from out-of-the-area bicyclists.

Among the sights will be working farm lands, the Tule Lake Unit of the World War II Valor in the Pacific National Monument, Lava Beds National Monument and the Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuge. "We're offering rides for all People participating in one of the four rides, including three that will begin and end at the Tulelake-Butte Valley Fairgrounds in Tulelake on Saturday, May 28, will be treated to snippets of rural America. The goal of the event is "to expose riders to an undiscovered part of Siskiyou, Modoc and Klamath counties while doing our part to ensure survival of rural America." Co-coordinators Linda Woodley and Bev Ott said bicyclists can choose between a 100-mile century, 45-mile, 16-mile family-friendly or 20-mile mountain bike rides.

BUILDING INSPECTOR

Art of Survival Century Bike Ride

The 3rd annual Art of Survival bike ride is set for Saturday, May 28, 2016. This event is intended to showcase the beauty, wildlife, agriculture and rich history of our communities. Many local individuals and non-profit organizations have joined forces to make this possible.

To participate choose your favorite route: a Century ride, a 45 mile ride, a 16 mile family-friendly ride or a 20 mile mountain bike ride. The ride passes through either Tulalake, Merrill, Malin or the Lava Beds National Monument. All road routes are light on traffic and have mostly flat terrain. What a great way to promote fitness, family and fun!! For more information or to register for this event, go online at www.survivalcentury.com If you would like to sponsor the Art of Survival Bike Ride, please contact City Hall at 667-5522 for more information. This is a great opportunity to help continue the growth of this event and bring people to our areas.

New City Business

The City Council Members have passed a few new ordinances:

An amendment to Ordinance 8.08, Public Nuisance and Recovery of Costs, was adopted on Dec 1, 2015.

On January 19, 2016 the following Ordinances were adopted and passed:

Ordinance 17.52 Prohibition of Marijuana Cultivation

Ordinance 8.20.010 Public Smoking of Marijuana

Ordinance 8.30.010 Marijuana Dispensaries

And Ordinance 8.40.010 Marijuana Deliveries

If you are interested in reading these ordinances, they are posted at City Hall; some on the door and, due to limited space, the others are on the bulletin board inside.

Dog Licenses

Just a reminder to all of our dog owners that you need to purchase a dog license from City Hall. If your dog is 8 months or older and you reside within the City of Tulalake, you need to have your dog vaccinated against rabies and licensed. Dog License Fees are as follows: $12 for Unaltered pets, $7 for spayed or neutered pets and if you are over 60 your fee is $5 for each license. Please bring your proof of vaccination with you when you come in. For the safety of your dog and the public, please keep your dog on a leash!

Sewer Rate Increase

A public meeting was held at City Hall on December 1, 2015 regarding proposed changes to the sewer rates. The rate increase will help cover the costs of the new Wastewater Treatment Plant. Starting July 1, 2016 you will see an increase of $6.60 on your utility bill. The sewer rate is changing from $38.40 to $45.00.

Art of Survival Century - Promoting Fitness, Family and Fun

3rd Annual
ART OF SURVIVAL CENTURY
 May 28, 2016

Our motto is Fitness, Family and Fun which is reflected in the different course options. Choose from routes of a Century, 45, 20-mile mountain bike route through the Modoc Forest or a 16-mile family friendly ride. The intention behind the "Art of Survival Century" is to expose riders to an undiscovered part of Siskiyou, Modoc and Klamath Counties while doing our part to ensure "survival" of rural America.

The ride takes place in the Tulelake/Klamath Falls region of Northern California and Southern Oregon. Celebrate with us our National Parks Centennial by riding through the Lava Beds National Monument where amazing geology and geography surround the rider and the WWII Valor in the Pacific National Monument where you will learn about the Japanese American Segregation Center. Ride also winds through the Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuge where waterfowl and wildlife abound. Rest stops combine excellent food and beverages with educational components and unique Ranger/Historian led talks. All road routes are light on traffic and have mostly flat terrain. Convenient, affordable local lodging is available. All proceeds from the event benefit local rural community development.

Beauty, Wildlife and Rich History

Art of Survival Century Bicycle Ride - Come & Ride or Just to Enjoy!

This year's ride has an inspiring and amazing historical event honor - our National Parks 100th Anniversary. You may have heard about the National FIND YOUR PARKS campaign—we look no more, we found your parks right here in Northern California and Southern Oregon. Join us as we explore two parks on May 28, 2016 at the Art of Survival Century Bicycle Ride. This event is set in one of the most beautiful, remote and undiscovered part of Siskiyou County, California and Klamath County, Oregon.

The ride weaves through rich farmland and incredible wetland areas with a vast array of birds, wildlife and springtime wild flow. It follows the historical landmarks that were part of an event that Japanese American Internment Camp survivors and their families make a pilgrimage to honor every other year.

Both the 100 and 45 mile routes go into the Lava Beds National Monument which has an unparalleled volcanic landscape with towering cinder cones, expansive black lava flows and more than 700 lava tube caves. The park also has a rich cultural history containing thousands of petroglyphs and pictographs, as well as the major battlefields of the Modoc Indian War.

CREST THE CASCADES | June 18 - Sisters

McKenzie Pass is of the most scenic areas in Oregon, but the road is only open three months of the year. The narrow, winding pass climbs up and over a moon-like terrain covered in lava rock with 300 degree striking mountain views.

The climb is challenging and on-so-rewarding. There is a quiet out there you won't find many other places, the slight whir of your tires on pavement, a bird in the distance, the wind gently moving through the trees. It's you and your bike - slow and steady as you climb the manageable grade.

Crest the Cascades (known as the Ride for Two Rivers) is your opportunity to ride McKenzie Pass car free - the very best way to experience this magical region.

It looks as if the weather is finally starting to calm down After three days of sunshine and upwards of 60 degrees, you can't help but notice that the birds are chirping and it is really hard to stay inside! With the warmer weather comes the huge migration of geese that harbor themselves in the Klamath and Tulelake refuges, and what a beautiful sight and sound experience!

The third annual Art of Survival Century bike ride at Tulelake- Butte Valley Fairgrounds on May 28, 2016 is a family friendly event open to cyclists of all skill levels sponsored by Malin Community Service Club.

This is a ride, not a race. With routes that weave through historical landmarks of the Modoc War battlegrounds and detainment of Japanese-American prisoners during WWII, past farmlands and wetlands, the goal is to reveal the rich cultural history, stunning views and unique volcanic landscape of the Klamath and Tulelake basins located on the border of Oregon and California.

With four routes offered, there's something for everyone: A century (109 miles when the 18 mile option is added), 45 mile, 20 mile mountain bike ride, and a 16 mile family friendly ride. There will also be a children's Bike Rodeo sponsored by California Highway Patrol.

What really sets this ride apart is the educational talks led by rangers and historians at each rest stop along the route. In addition to healthy snacks, beverages and restrooms, aid stations will offer riders an opportunity to learn through interpretive presentations about the region's natural history.

Past presenters have included a 90-year-old former Japanese prisoner at Tule Lake Segregation Center, who was called on to build a jail to imprison his own people due to skill in construction, as well as the great-granddaughter of Modoc Indian Warrior Shkeitko, "Shacknasty Jim."

"Some rides are really about the challenge of the ride itself," said Cycle Siskiyou Project Coordinator George Jennings. "The really unique thing about Art of Survival is the history. It follows the stewardship tourism model in offering educational experiences that connect the community to the natural beauty, history and geography of this region. It's a nice early season ride because there are no steep climbs, just beautiful views."

The ride begins and ends at the Tulelake-Butte Valley Fairgrounds in Tulelake, Calif. RV and camping sites are available at the fairgrounds.

In honor of the National Park Service 100th anniversary, weekend admission to Lava Beds National Monument and the Tule Lake Unit, WWII Valor in the Pacific National Monument Museum is included in the registration fee. Commemorative anniversary t-shirts and bike jerseys will also be available for purchase.

Riders are invited to a pre-ride reception at the Discover Klamath Center in Klamath Falls, Ore. on Friday, May 27 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Rider packets will be available at this time.

The general public is invited to a post ride celebration at the fairgrounds Saturday afternoon.

#	Responses	Date
1	Cold soda and chips at the alde stations, dinner food stash for the late finishers	5/28/2016 5:23 PM
2	make sure there is food left for the last to finish the race	5/28/2016 5:20 PM
3	make it into a gran fondo? might bring in racers and riders	5/28/2016 5:18 PM
4	None - fantastic job	5/28/2016 5:11 PM
5	If you run out of info packets early, keep one of the info sheets for reference at the start. I didn't know a lot of the basics, like when the ride started in the AM. ... Share more photos online now of the area. It's stunning here! Have a SAG mainline number to call, so I could just call instead of waiting for someone to show up. (Though, truthfully, I did not need to wait long!)	5/28/2016 4:40 PM
6	1. More technical support including a pump 2. elevation profile for each ride including a separate profile for the optional 18. 3. more info about mileage etc before the ride	5/28/2016 4:31 PM
7	Road markings were very good. cant think of any right now.	5/28/2016 4:30 PM
8	Promoting the metric century. We almost didn't register because we didn't see it on the website.	5/28/2016 4:29 PM
9	Beer at end. Enough lasagna to last... We missed it	5/28/2016 4:29 PM
10	It would be nice to have the miles on the map for the aid stations/rest stops. It would also have been nice to see the SAG on the century ride for the first 50+ miles	5/28/2016 4:27 PM
11	mechanical help at rest stops. Outline "gold" markers with black background for better visibility.	5/28/2016 4:26 PM
12	The route finding to the event location was horrible, the information on the website was completely horrible, it had no pertinent information regarding the route, there was conflicting information regarding the mileage and routes. We got lost trying to find our way to the mountain biking starting location. there was no information on the mountain biking, we thought it was supported like the century. it was a good thing I brought supplies and extra water. you have a good thing going here please try to get it right! I am a event promoter and this was poorly done. the location and the staff was top notch. you need to improve your social media presence and regularly update your website content. it took over two weeks to get a response via email about updated route information.	5/28/2016 4:24 PM
13	Better website/facebook event management. A couple support stations on the mountain bike ride.	5/28/2016 4:22 PM
14	Directions out of aid stations and inform aid station volunteers of the route direction (and miteage)	5/28/2016 4:22 PM
15	SAG wagon for flat tires. A phone number to call for roadside assistance. Those were both part of the other race I did.	5/28/2016 4:20 PM
16	it was great	5/28/2016 4:18 PM
17	I recommend a call line for flat repair/SAG	5/28/2016 4:18 PM
18	a support vehicle to help with flats and repairs	5/28/2016 4:17 PM
19	None that I can think of.	5/28/2016 4:16 PM
20	I have no recommendations. Everything was wonderful!	5/28/2016 4:16 PM
21	For the century ride add a couple more restroom stops in between the food/liquid aid station.	5/28/2016 4:15 PM
22	iced drinks at rest stops	5/28/2016 4:08 PM
23	nothing actually! amazing experience	5/28/2016 3:58 PM
24	It was awesome, thanks so much for all of your hard work!	5/28/2016 3:52 PM
25	Well, if the NPS could fix those joints in the road through the monument ;-)	5/28/2016 3:46 PM
26	Maybe, a bit more information at the start.	5/28/2016 3:33 PM
27	change the course a little for next year so that we see something new	5/28/2016 3:32 PM
28	Food is much better than last year but still not up to the par of other Siskiyou County century rides	5/28/2016 3:19 PM

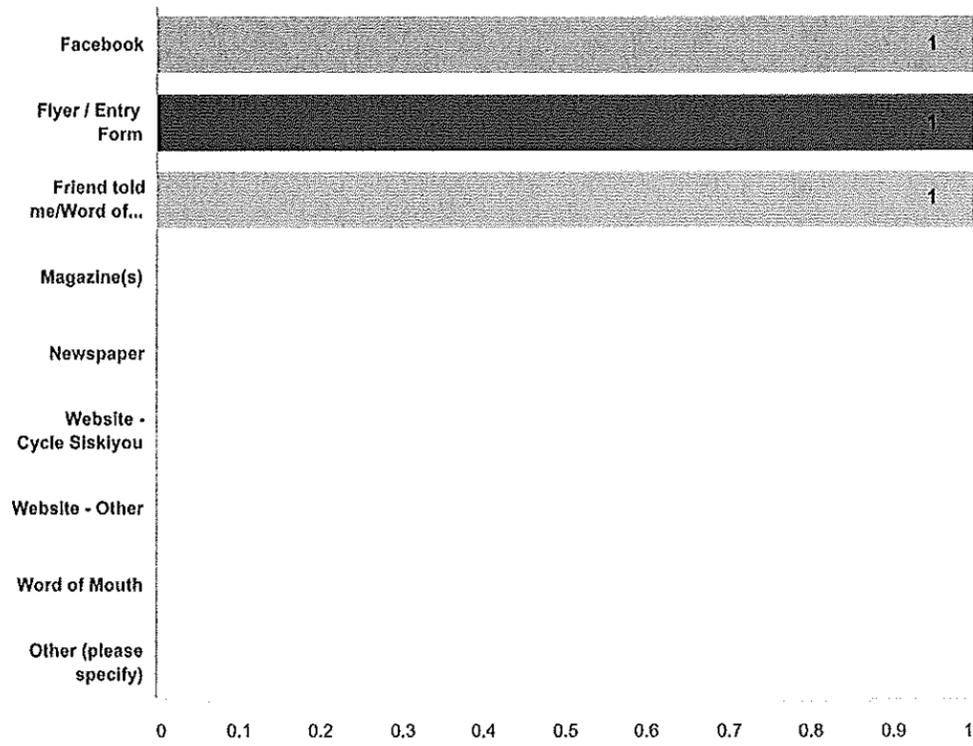

29	You did an awesome job changing last years challenges. Do it like you did this year.	5/28/2016 3:18 PM
30	this year, none.	5/28/2016 3:17 PM
31	Place arrows to SAG stop and continue ahead arrows if SAG not needed.	5/28/2016 3:16 PM
32	Some good coffee at the start	5/28/2016 3:16 PM
33	Great Event !! All is real good	5/28/2016 3:14 PM
34	None. Last year my experience was 90% positive and 10% negative. The negatives last year were mainly around mapping and marking the course. Those problems were completely and cheerfully addressed.	5/28/2016 3:13 PM
35	No recommendations	5/28/2016 3:09 PM
36	Keep up the good work.	5/28/2016 3:05 PM
37	Only annoying part were the expansion cracks in the road through the Lava Bed Nat. Monument	5/28/2016 3:03 PM
38	Have a bike pump available.	5/28/2016 2:53 PM
39	better signage at the beginning especially, we missed a turn and got a little lost. all the law officers are very much appreciated , its great to have them out there.	5/28/2016 2:45 PM
40	More and better visible signage.	5/28/2016 2:41 PM
41	So the best I could say is provide Tabasco for the eggs, and pepper for the potatoes.	5/28/2016 2:29 PM
42	competition between rest stops is always fun	5/28/2016 2:29 PM
43	Cold beer at the end. :)	5/28/2016 2:28 PM
44	For food, some of us are gluten and/or dairy free. And protein is crucial. So perhaps having an option for protein that didn't include dairy or gluten would be nice!	5/28/2016 2:28 PM
45	We came along way our tire pump broke , there wasn't one anywhere at the start . A bike repair person for last minute problems !	5/28/2016 2:22 PM
46	It was as perfect as it could get.	5/28/2016 2:22 PM
47	I thought it was very well done. Water refill at visitor center at Lava Beds would be nice but Gatorade was fine	5/28/2016 2:19 PM
48	Adding a metric century, which we did by adding the optional 18 mile loop, but it should be part of your promotion.	5/28/2016 2:19 PM
49	good job,sorry you did a good job. maybe mark the roads a little better were you turn	5/28/2016 2:18 PM
50	None	5/28/2016 2:10 PM
51	Greeter at the camping area.	5/28/2016 2:07 PM
52	Cookies at the end:)	5/28/2016 2:07 PM
53	More information on the website.	5/28/2016 2:06 PM
54	Use standard road ride signs to indicate course on road. More gluten free food options.	5/28/2016 2:05 PM
55	Beer at the end again!	5/28/2016 2:05 PM
56	It was perfect!!	5/28/2016 2:04 PM
57	I think it is just perfect	5/28/2016 1:59 PM
58	none it was great	5/28/2016 1:55 PM
59	None	5/28/2016 1:52 PM
60	More snack choices.	5/28/2016 1:50 PM
61	Registration on Friday even bout 5 p.m. was a bit confusing. Signs said register here if your initials are such and such. But we had already registered. Then some folks got sacks and information and others didn't. Ride routes weren't needed, but we found them, but had to ask. Not sure what would be best about that.	5/28/2016 1:49 PM
62	None - it was wonderful and I would do it again.	5/28/2016 1:48 PM
63	At the very last turn, 100 yards from the event staging area, you need a right turn sign. We almost started the circuit again	5/28/2016 1:47 PM

64	Very little, perhaps a little more food variety for gluten intolerant folks	5/28/2016 1:47 PM
65	Hand wipes for cleaning before eating??	5/28/2016 1:46 PM
66	None. Everything was great	5/28/2016 1:46 PM
67	Some kind of bike racks or other way to hang bikes at the rest stops	5/28/2016 1:31 PM
68	None that I can think of.	5/28/2016 1:28 PM
69	I dont have any recommendation because it is very good	5/28/2016 1:28 PM
70	Nothing	5/28/2016 1:28 PM
71	I got on the route going backwards. When I saw the sign for the 18 and 100 I followed it. I didn't see a sign telling me to continue straight for the 45.	5/28/2016 1:24 PM
72	wish you could repave some of the roads	5/28/2016 1:15 PM
73	a 60 mile option	5/28/2016 1:13 PM
74	I don't think you could remove the bugs. Include a metric century	5/28/2016 1:10 PM
