

450

people reached with education

Narcan doses distributed	268
Formal presentations	18
Year-round kiosks for unused prescriptions	6
Locations offering prepaid envelopes for unused prescription disposal	8

Prescription opioids are medications that relieve pain. They are intended to treat moderate to severe pain and are often prescribed after surgery, an injury, or for health conditions like cancer.

Prescription medications are not the only form of opioids. Drugs like heroin, illicitly-made fentanyl and drugs like it called fentanyl analogs, are also present in Oregon, and contribute to the opioid crisis. This includes drugs sold on the street that may look like pharmaceutical drugs, but contain powerful illicit opioids.

Klamath County Public Health | Fiscal year 2021-22

Opioid overdose prevention